HOPE's House Curriculum Introduction

Hope Prison Ministries is not primarily a social welfare agency; our focus is not merely that you have food, clothing or shelter (even though we provide these). For what does it profit if a man gain the world and lose his soul? Above all else, we desire that we and those we serve should know Christ, that we should no longer live for ourselves but for Him who died and was raised for us! When you applied to our program and were accepted, you agreed to attend classes or to watch DVDs that are designed to help you “renew your mind,” to “put off the old man” and “put on the new man,” to “repent,” to learn how to think Biblically. Well has it been said, “an idle mind is the devil’s workshop” and “idle time is his playground.” Toward these ends, it is a requirement of our aftercare program that you minimize your idle time with activities that are designed to renew your mind so that you will learn how to think and live Biblically, how to prove for yourself that which is the “good and acceptable and perfect will of God.” (See Mark 8:36; 2 Corinthians 5:15; Romans 12:1-2; Ephesians 4:22-24; Matthew 3:8.)

CLASS: Finding Hope in the Power of the Gospel! Every Saturday. A meal is provided.

If you work hard to minimize your idle time, even working, you should be able to complete all of these within the 6 months to a year that you are under our care. Unlike so many programs, Hope Prison Ministries strives to not be rigid, legalistic or micromanagers, so we require only that you make every effort to honor your word in this regard. Setting aside 1 or 2 hours a day for your devotions for this purpose should serve you well. We also understand the need to rest and relax, to get out every now and then. So, for those not working, running errands and looking for work is expected to consume some time each day as well.

Following this introduction is a proposed daily schedule. We realize everyone's life, work schedules, probation or parole requirements will all vary. We ask that you strive to follow the schedule as much as possible, provide explanation when you feel you must deviate greatly, but that you make every effort to honor your commitment to the program as we have for you.
